MAY SUBPOENA THE GOVERNOR AS A WITNESS

10,000 LAKES FUR FARM CASE OPENS MONDAY

PRES. ROBBINS IS INDICTED ON CHARGES OF VIOLATING
"BLUE SKY" LAW

MIKE HOLM AND A. J. VEIGEL ORDERED TO APPEAR AT TRIAL

St. Paul, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Governor Theodore Christianson and nine other high present and former Minnesota state office-holders may be subpoenaed to appear as witnesses in the graft trial of officials of the 10,000 Lakes Fur Farm Corporation, it was learned here today.

Albert A. Robbins, president of the fur company, announced through his counsel he will attempt to prove several of the officials shared in the profits of the concern. Robbins is under indictment on charges of violating the state "blue sky" laws through sale of unregistered securities.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, and A. J. Veigel, state banking commissioner, today were served with warrants ordering them to appear at the trial, which opens Monday in Nicollet county district court at St. Peter. Holm was one of two state officials charged by Robbins with "making a political football of my business."

John Regan, attorney for Robbins, issued a statement in which he declared "the state capitol will be moved from St. Paul to St. Peter Monday to clear up this business."

Other officials whose names Regan mentioned as probable witnesses were Governor Theodore Christianson, Geo. W. McCullough, state fish and game commissioner; R. C. Ferguson, assistant to Holm; C. W. Henke, former state game commissioner; Robert B. Forest, deputy game commissioner; D. C. Quail, I. A. Grinceland, and Andrew E. Nelson, former securities commissioner who was convicted in a $2,000,000 gold note swindle.

Holm admitted he received two unit shares in the company's muskrat farm at Battle Creek, Minn., but denied he was "guilty of any improper conduct." He said Robbins gave him the units in appreciation of the aid given the concern by the secretary of state's office in incorporating the organization.

A. W. Gillan, state securities commissioner, and Veigel held a conference at the state capitol as soon as the charges were made public and shortly thereafter Veigel declared that if any political influence was given the company "it never did much good."

Gillan issued a statement pointing out that the 10,000 Lakes concern never applied for permission to sell its units of animals and that a predecessor of the company was denied a permit three days ago.

Other officials who Regan said would be brought to the trial as witnesses refused to comment, except Holm, who declared "it is foolish to intimate my influence was purchased for stock representing six measly rats."

The new process achieves its results through the utilization of natural oils.

Leaks in Secret Tariff Rate Writing Session

JURY REPUDIATES GROSS 'EVIL EYE' SUPERSTITION

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—A jury of 11 men and one woman repudiated the "evil eye" superstition in a verdict of guilty of first degree murder returned early today against Mrs. Pearl Burgess.

The middle aged matron was convicted of murdering Mrs. Etta Fairchild, 76, whom she accused of holding the Burgess family under a "spell" and of casting an "evil eye" on Eugenie, the 17-year-old daughter.

The jury reached a verdict at 1:30 o'clock this morning after deliberating 14 hours. Mrs. Burgess heard the verdict without show of emotion. There was no recommendation of sentence.

Sentencing of Mrs. Burgess was postponed for 80 days by Circuit Judge Welmer.

FALL DEFENSE TO BE CLOSED EARLY TODAY

AFTER EDWARD L. DOHENY AND MRS. DOHENY GIVE TESTIMONY

TELL OF $100,000 TRANSACTION
IN 1921 PRECEDING DOHENY
OIL LEASE

By HERBERT LITTLE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 18.—Former Interior Secretary Albert B. Fall's lawyers planned to close his defense case in his bribery trial today after Edward L. Doheny, the oil king, and Mrs. Doheny gave their versions of the $100,000 transaction in 1921 which preceded Doheny's lease of the Elk Hills reserve.

Doheny, vigorous despite his 74 years, is under indictment for giving the same alleged bribe, and the decision in this case may determine whether he will have to stand trial.

The rosy-cheeked, white-haired millionaire has contended from the first the money was just a "friendly loan." This "loan" was given just to help Fall save his New Mexico ranch from a possible water shortage, according to testimony given in an earlier oil trial by E. L. "Ned" Doheny, Jr., the only son of the oil man.

"Ned" Doheny was killed by an insane employe a few months ago, and the defense yesterday read his testimony to the jury, including a statement that "my secretary, a man named Plunkett," accompanied young Doheny to Washington when he brought Fall the $100,000.

Attorneys hoped closing arguments might start this afternoon. It is unlikely they will be completed by tomorrow noon. Under District of Columbia law, the locked-up jury cannot continue through the week-end, as the legal holiday commences at noon on Saturday.

JAPAN ACCEPTS INVITATION TO NAVAL PARLEY

ACTION MADE PUBLIC BY THE AMERICAN STATE DEPARTMENT
TODAY

JAPAN IN PLEA FOR REAL NOT LIMITED NAVAL REDUCTION

Washington, Oct. 18.—Japan's acceptance of the invitation to a January naval conference in London was made public by the state department today.

The Japanese communication concludes with a brief, pointed plea for real naval reduction and not mere limitation. There are no reservations or conditions to Japanese participation in the conference although Japan expresses eagerness to consult with Great Britain prior to the conference regarding essential points upon which agreement will be sought.

In these conversations Japan is expected to request an increase in her auxiliary ship tonnage ratio from 3-to-5 to 7-to-10 as compared with the British and American navies. The communication does not mention the British feeler regarding possible abolition of submarines which is certain to be opposed by Japan.

The character of the Japanese note coincided with expectations that Tokio would unequivocally join in any effort toward naval reduction regardless whether under League of Nations or other auspices.

All powers invited to the naval conference have now accepted. The conference will meet the third week in January.

Prohibition Administrator and Agents Are Seeking Source of Flood of Poison Alcohol

600 GALLONS OF DEADLY POISON SEIZED YESTERDAY

SAMPLES OF LIQUOR INDICATE POISON NOT REMOVED BY RE-DISTILLING

FOUR MEN ARRESTED IN RAID
CARRIED OUT AT BROAD-HEAD, WIS.

St. Paul, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—M. L. Harney, deputy northwest prohibition administrator, today announced every available federal agent in the northwest has been ordered to search for the source of a possible flood of poison alcohol.

Harney said 600 gallons of deadly poisonous liquor was seized Thursday by Madison agents in a raid at Broadhead, Wis. R. J. Nye, deputy administrator for Wisconsin, was reported to have warned the treasury department of the seizure.

Samples of liquor, containing a poison that cannot be removed by re-distilling, also were found in St. Paul, Harney said. Garvin D. Williams, government chemist here, declared consumption of any quantity of the alcohol would result in blindness and probable death.

Four men were arrested in the raid at Broadhead, in Green county, Wis., and one man was held after the ascertained poison liquor discovery here.

CHARGED WITH BEATING WOMAN

ENGLISHMAN IS CHARGED WITH SEEKING "TO DRIVE DEVIL OUT OF HER"

St. Charles, Ill., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Charged with beating an emaciated little woman "to drive the devil out of her," Sidney Hunt, an Englishman said to be the head of an odd religious cult, was free on bail while authorities sought further information.

The cult, the "Path of the Divine Mystery," has flourished here secretly for months, investigators said.

Mrs. Pauline Valentine, 55, who weighs only 80 pounds, said Hunt obtained $25,000 from her and then administered the beating, a part of the cult ritual.

It was learned that Hunt, Mrs. Valentine, a blind man named Ament, a Mrs. Ruth Martin and her 7-year-old daughter lived in the cult headquarters here.

St. Paul, Oct. 18.—The Citizens State Bank of Beardsley has been closed because of depleted reserves and poor paper, A. J. Veigel, state banking commissioner, announced today.

HENRY L. STIMSON TO HEAD U.S. BODY TO NAVAL PARLEY

Washington, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Henry L. Stimson, secretary of state, has been selected to head America's delegation to the five power naval limitations conference in London next January. It was learned today. The selection was made by President Hoover. Charles G. Dawes, American ambassador to Great Britain, and Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, are others said to be considered.

2 COLLEGE GIRLS MAKE CHARGE OF WHITE SLAVERY

ALLEGED BUXOM NEGRESS HELD THEM IN CHINESE DISTRICT
HOTEL, MINNEAPOLIS

CLAIM THEY WERE THREATENED WITH WHIPPINGS AND STARVATION

Minneapolis, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Two Des Moines, Ia., college girls were scheduled to appear in municipal court here today to charge Mrs. Effie Carter, a buxom negress, with forcing them into three days of alleged white slavery in a Chinese district hotel.

Mrs. Carter was charged by Miss Elizabeth Owens, assistant county attorney, with operating a vice resort and the girls were held on vagrancy warrants to insure their appearance as witnesses.

The negress denied the girls were lured into her second story hotel or that they were held prisoners and the intimacies of Chinese men forced upon them. Members of the city purity squad said, however, they found the young white women locked up and near collapse in a room of the hotel.

The girls said they were returning to Des Moines from Devils Lake, N. D., where they visited relatives when they decided to stop in Minneapolis. They asserted a porter on the train recommended the hotel in which they were held prisoners.

"We tried to get away when we saw the interior of the hotel," one of them said, "but the negress wouldn't let us. We were locked in a dirty room, forced to take our meals there and to entertain at least 50 Chinese men in three days."

"The woman threatened us with starvation and whippings if we refused to obey her."

Federal authorities today were reported preparing for raids on all questionable Twin City resorts after the girls disclosed that an organized white slave ring may be operating in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

CLAIM THAT PROHIBITION IS A FAILURE

TWO MEN HIGH IN MEDICAL WORLD GO ON RECORD IN MATTER TODAY

ASSERT PASSAGE OF DRY ACT IS SETBACK TO TENDENCY TOWARD TEMPERANCE

Chicago, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Two men high in the medical world were on record here today as asserting that prohibition is a failure and passage of the 18th amendment has been a distinct setback to the tendency toward temperance.

Dr. Edward Martin, Philadelphia, past president of the American College of Surgeons and Dr. C. Jeff Miller, New Orleans, its president-elect, told colleagues attending the annual convention of the college here that they always had been opposed to abuses of alcoholic liquor but were convinced prohibition was wrong in principle and actually harmful in effect. Their findings received the approval of their fellow surgeons.

"Prohibition is a magnificent effort, yet I see no evidence that it ever has been enforced, nor any probability that it ever can be enforced," said Dr. Martin.

"I agree with Mr. Martin," said Dr. Miller. "I believe that temperance and the education of the people in temperance was making wonderful headway when prohibition came along. People had found it good policy to be temperate. There was a day it had passed. The time had come when in the medical profession we no longer thought the good drinker was the good doctor and that was true in most lines of endeavor."

Since the passage of the prohibition amendment, this tendency toward temperance had been inhibited, both surgeons agreed, and there had been a distinct swing toward over-indulgence in alcoholic beverages.

"In spite of prohibition, however," Dr. Martin said, "more people die from overeating than from overdrinking. In fact alcohol, properly used at or after middle age, is a blessing. At such time it prolongs life, adds joy to the living, lubricates social intercourse and, to quote the ancients, is a gift from the gods. At the same time, abused, it is an unmitigated curse."

"But take the case of a man fatigued. Give such a man a single good drink and the fatigue is removed and he becomes a ray of sunshine to his family and his friends. Thus taken, alcohol is totally consumed in the body and transformed into beneficial energy."

PYROMANIAC SET FIRE TO SEATTLE HOTEL

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—A pyromaniac who deliberately set fire to the Portland hotel here yesterday, resulting in the death of eight and injury of 14, was sought by police here today.

Investigation of officials revealed that the stairways in the laborers hotel which was operated by a Japanese, had been drenched with kerosene and then ignited.

The blaze, described as one of the worst in the history of Seattle, caught most of the occupants of the building on their beds. The flames swept through the building in a few minutes, choking the narrow stairways in clouds of smoke that cut off all retreats.

The injured all are expected to recover.

PANTAGES ASSAULT TRIAL BRINGS MUCH TROUBLE TO BIFFLES

BIFFLE, LAW BOOK SALESMAN, FACES CHARGE OF PERJURY IN THE TRIAL

MRS. BIFFLES SOBS AS SHE TESTIFIES; 2 DOCTORS FOR DEFENSE ON STAND

Los Angeles, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—The Pantages assault trial brought trouble into the placid married life of the Biffles.

Today, while physicians testified for the defense that Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old dancer, apparently had not been attacked by Alexander Pantages, millionaire theater man, as she claims, Garland Biffle and Flo, his wife, were worrying over the unhappy turn the trial has given their lives.

Biffle, law book salesman, faces a charge of giving perjured testimony in the trial. He must plead to an indictment on Nov. 28.

His wife corroborated some of his testimony yesterday, bravely holding to her story despite efforts of District Attorney Buren Fitts to break it down. Then, when she left the stand and seemed about to faint, a bailiff approached to assist her.

"Oh, you're not going to take me to jail, too?" she screamed hysterically and sobbed as she left the hall of justice on the arm of her husband. He was at liberty on $7,000 bond arranged following his arrest last Wednesday just as he stepped down from the stand as the first defense witness.

Biffle had told of being in the Pantages building with his wife the afternoon that Miss Pringle claims Pantages lured her into a conference room and attacked her. He testified overbearing a conversation between the young dancer and Nick Dunay, author of the act she wanted to have booked on the Pantages circuit.

"If he doesn't book me he'll be sorry as long as he lives," the law book salesman quoted Miss Pringle as saying. That testimony was in line with the defense contention that Miss Pringle attempted a "frameup" to get part of the $20,000,000 Pantages had just received for theater interests.

Mrs. Biffle testified yesterday to seeing Miss Pringle and Dunay enter the building.

She said she could not hear what the two said. Her testimony of seeing Dunay in the building at that time supported the word of her husband against evidence produced before the grand jury by the state to show the playwright was in a lawyer's office.

Dr. Peter Sunenhand and Dr. Sterling Pierce had preceded Mrs. Biffle to the stand. Both testified they examined Miss Pringle four days after the asserted attack and found nothing to indicate it had been consummated.

A number of physicians were expected to testify today. There was no indication when Pantages would testify in his own behalf.

MANUFACTURERS LEARN ALL THAT HAS TRANSPIRED

SENATE LOBBY INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE SEARCHING FOR PUBLICITY CHANNEL

ALL SECRETARIES OF SENATORS ARE NOW BARRED FROM COMMITTEE SESSIONS

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 18.—The mysterious way manufacturers over the country learned what was transpiring in the secret tariff rate-writing session of the house ways and means committee, occupied the attention of the senate lobby investigating committee today.

One of the reasons Charles L. Eyan, son of the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association was barred from the finance committee sessions as a secretary of Senator Hiram Bingham, republican, Connecticut, was that the committee suspected "leaks" of its doings, according to information given the United Press by committee members.

Eyan was designated for examination by the investigating committee today, following up its examination yesterday of Senator Bingham who held he had done nothing improper in employing Eyan as secretary.

A rate was secretly set by the committee one day and the next day a manufacturer 500 miles away wired committee protesting against the action which was supposed to have been secret, it is learned.

Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, member of the rate writers, served notice to the rest of the committee in the executive session at that time, he would not be party to any further open secrets like that, and thereafter Couzens told manufacturers in his state openly what the committee was doing. All secretaries of senators, including Eyan, then were barred from the committee sessions.

The committee is informed Eyan had nothing to do with the particular rate leak which induced Couzens to bolt the secrecy agreement, but members requested him to bring his correspondence with the Connecticut manufacturers to the stand to see if he revealed any of the committee action.

Previous evidence before the investigators indicated William Burgess, legislative agent for the pottery interests received a "leak" from the house committee as to the activities in executive session of Frederick L. Koch, pottery expert of the tariff commission. None of the information either in the Couzens or Eyan cases was published in the newspapers at the time. No punitive action against Eyan or Bingham is contemplated at this time, members of the investigating committee indicate.

Chairman Caraway and Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, said they do not intend to hand the evidence over to any prosecuting authorities, for action under the statute which prevents any government employee from receiving pay from outside interests, as Eyan did when he continued his $10,000 salary from the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association while he was on the government rolls as Bingham's secretary.

J. C. PENNEY IS AWARDED CUP AT DAIRY SHOW

WINS PEER CUP FOR GUERNSEY

SUCCESSIVE YEAR

IOWA, MINNESOTA AND WISCONSIN HAVE DAY AT NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin had their day at the National Dairy Show today, while judges continued the work of picking champions of the Jersey and Holstein dairy cattle breeds.

Three grand champions were chosen Thursday. They are:

Sir Fishes Crosby Hengerveld, grand champion Holstein bull, owned by Elmwood Farms of Deerfield, Ill.; Suttlerwick Levity, grand champion Jersey cow, owned by William H. Williams of Lyon, New York, and Fern's Signal of Oaklands, grand champion Jersey bull, owned by Twin Oaks Farm of Morristown, N. Y.

J. C. Penney, multi-millionaire chain store magnate, was awarded the Peer cup for Guernsey breeders for the third successive year. The cup, donated in 1920 by Frank S. Peer, noted importer of purebred Guernseys, is for the best exhibit of three cows and a bull from the same sire.

Police Dog Discovers Brutal Murder

Through the discovery of the body of Agnes Johnson (lower left) by "Spike," a dog owned by Chief of Police Charles Sullivan, one of the most brutal murders ever perpetrated in West Chicago, Ill., was brought to light. Following the dog's discovery of Miss Johnson's still form, detectives arrested and held for the murder John B. Preston (inset above), who, it is understood, confessed that he had strangled the girl when she resisted his advances. Preston, who is a married man, took Miss Johnson and her cousin, Matilda Murphy, to Hansen's roadhouse (above), on the outskirts of West Chicago. According to Miss Murphy he started to drink moonshine whiskey and became very amorous. The girls insisted that he take them home. He did take Miss Murphy to her house and it appears afterwards drove off with Miss Johnson. She was never seen alive again.

Stomach Disorders First Revealed by Coated Tongue

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble.

A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.

Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope.

Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Speaks on Divine Healing

A good crowd was in attendance last night at the Full Gospel Assembly to hear Evangelist Pearl Gilliland speak on divine healing. She took her text from the 16th chapter of Mark. "These signs shall follow them that believe." She said that there were many people who did not believe that divine healing was for today and as a consequence this sign did not follow, but that to all that would believe God would honor their faith and heal their bodies. number were prayed for at the close of the service.

ANNIVERSARY SALE

ANOTHER
BIG WEEK

OCTOBER 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26

ANOTHER
BIG WEEK

Why We Have Always Been Leaders in Value Giving

It can not be denied that "in unity there is strength." When the plan of "Collective Bargaining" was conceived, the Serve-U-Well Grocers were among the first in the Northwest to see and appreciate the advantages of big volume business and the perfection of our organization followed.

We are just celebrating our third anniversary and the great sale marks another milestone in our progress. During the three years of our existence many other distributors, some of which are not far from Brainerd, have adopted our basic principles and are patterning with indifferent success thereafter.

We are, therefore, the undisputed originators of collective buying and selling in Central Minnesota and the number and character of our more than fifty stalwart members is the best evidence of their ability to "Serve-U" and "Serve-U-Well."

Our stores are household words and every home manager knows that ours is something more than a name, and that wherever our merchandise goes, quality and unmatchable prices will be found hand in hand.

This is reciprocal "Collective Bargaining" whereby immense quantity purchases enable us to offer prices that are always just a little lower than those of the other fellow.

We Sell Cheaper Because We Buy for Less and This Saving Goes Directly to the Consumer

We own our own wholesale house and no jobbers or middle men come in for a profit. Our policy has always been to give the greatest bargains in household necessities consistent with quality which has made the

Why We Enjoy the Confidence of the Frugal Housewife

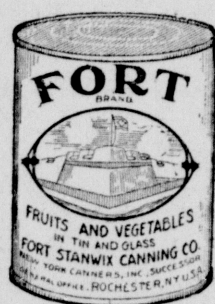

When we started in business three years ago we selected as co-members of our organization the oldest and most representative merchants in each community where we established branches.

We adopted as a merchandising plan one that would redound to the positive advantage of the consumer—a plan that would prove a saving to the customer on every purchase. This has been made possible by buying in large quantities for more than fifty associate dealers; thus enabling them to pass the saving which usually goes to middle men directly to the consumer.

Another important reason for our rapid expansion is the fact that we handle none but strictly reliable, nationally known standard lines of merchandise. Thus the consumer knows just exactly what he is getting and just what he pays for.

The Serve-U-Well Grocers are banded together to enable them to meet the most strenuous competitive conditions that can possibly exist and at the same time make a saving to the customer on every purchase. Service is also an attribute at every one of our stores and its great importance is never overlooked.

These are all very good reasons why Serve-U-Well Grocers enjoy the confidence and esteem of the frugal housewife.

Work of Barbers More Important

THE nation's leaders in one of the world's oldest professions, namely barbering, will gather at St. Paul on October 21 for the sixth annual convention of the Master Barbers' Association of America.

More than 600 delegates and 2,000 additional visitors are expected at the four day convention over which Otto Ewert, Chicago, will preside. The organization has 700 chapters scattered through every state in the Union.

The barber shop owners are allied for the triple purpose of organization, education and legislation to bring about improved shop practices and to obtain legislation providing for sanitary observances, according to Ewert, who also is chairman of the barbers national education council which cooperates with the barber schools of the country.

From the fundamental shave and haircut the profession has grown through the various kinds of artistic bobs until the curriculum of a high standard barber school includes hygiene, bacteriology, histology of the hair, skin, nails, muscles and nerves, structure of the head, face and neck, massage and dressing, coloring, bleaching and tinting the hair.

Post graduate classes have been arranged to modernize the work of experienced barbers.

Minnesota has been a leader by the barbers' own efforts, in barber shop legislation and one of the business projects of the convention will deal with obtaining suitable legislation in many other states.

BECAUSE the Western Union Telegraph Company allegedly neglected to deliver a telegram, the Combination Mining and Milling Company of Denver has filed suit against the Western Union seeking $500,000 damages.

ANOKA is to vote on six charter changes October 29. As stated by the Anoka Herald the changes are aimed to correct flaws in the charter, to save money, to promote efficiency and to reduce taxes.

THE Cuyuna range is to have a woman minister. The Northern Minnesota Conference has assigned range town territory to Clara Wagner. The Rev. Frank Williams, who has had the field, will go to Kimball.

ONE does not have to study chemistry to know that gasoline and moonshine make a deadly mixture, damaging to the drivers of a car and to all they meet.

CHAMPLIN and Anoka are to unite on a Halloween bridge opening celebration.

will give you the thrill of your life

New power... new mileage...
new anti-knock quality

Try It! You are the real judge

"BUY one tankful of Purol-Pep. Pick out your worst hill—your toughest bit of traffic—and if you don't get the thrill of all your driving experience—then we'll have no kick if you don't come back."

That's what we told motorists when we announced Purol-Pep. That's what we repeat now. 9 out of every 10 do come back—with stories of performance that excel even our own amazing tests.

Purol-Pep sets a totally new standard. There is nothing else remotely like it—because this new Gyro Vapor-phase process has never before been employed in gasoline refining. More than three million dollars were spent by The Pure Oil Company to perfect it.

A different gasoline offered you in a different way

Ninety-nine out of a hundred motorists know pep when they feel it... hill-climbing ability when they see it... power when they experience it... and anti-knock quality when the knock is absent.

If these qualities do not exist—you are the first to know it. All the superlative claims possible cannot change that.

It is the belief of The Pure Oil Company that superlatives have had their day. It is time for a gasoline that can speak for itself in terms of pep... power... hill-climbing ability and anti-knock quality.

Purol-Pep—the totally new-processed gasoline—is such a fuel. And every motorist who uses one tankful will understand exactly what we mean.

Try it! It sells itself!

You're the judge! Fill your tank with Purol-Pep. Give it time to get through the carburetor. You'll get the thrill of all your driving experience. Purol-Pep is a pure petroleum product colored blue for identification only. You can get it from the white pumps at Pure Oil Company Service Stations and authorized dealers.

Purol-PEP GASOLINE

Tune in on the Pure Oil Radio Hour every Tuesday night—8 to 8:30 Eastern time, 7 to 7:30 Central time—over 19 Stations of an N. B. C. Network.

A complete line of Purol gasolines
—a type to meet every motoring requirement

1. Purol-Pep

The new Gyro Vapor-phase process gasoline

If you're driving a high-compression motor... if you love a new sensation, no matter what type of motor you drive... if you want to see the toughest hills look like straightaway stretches... if you want more pep... more power... more anti-knock quality than you ever dreamed possible—then Purol-Pep is the gasoline for you.

2. Purol Detonox

A premium gasoline for high-compression motors

Improved! And the premium reduced to 2¢! Thousands know Detonox as one of the few really superior anti-knock, quick-starting extra-power gasolines. Now—due to increased volume and the adoption of new refining processes—Purol Detonox has been given more power... more anti-knock quality... and the premium reduced. If you want a truly superior premium gasoline—rating high among those on the market—Purol Detonox is the gasoline for you. A pure gasoline, colored red for identification only.

KNUTE ROCKNE IRISHMEN TAKE ON WISCONSIN BADGERS

FEATURE GAME OF AMERICAN FOOTBALL WORLD

TO HAVE BEARING ON OUTCOME OF 1929 MIDDLEWEST FOOTBALL

3 OTHER GAMES INCLUDE MINNESOTA CLASHING WITH NORTHWESTERN

By BERT DEMBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Oct. 18. — Coach Knute Rockne's fighting Irishmen will run into Wisconsin's Badgers tomorrow in what, as far as popular interest is concerned, will be the feature game of a day which doubtless will have an important bearing on the eventual outcome of 1929 middle western football.

Sharing interest with the fight between the Irish and the Badgers will be three other games which bring together Big Ten teams and advance information indicates that these contests may have much to do with the eventual award of the western conference title.

In the conference affairs, Minnesota meets Northwestern; Illinois plays Iowa; and Michigan meets Ohio. With two consecutive championships already under his belt, Coach Bob Zuppke will send his Illini into action tomorrow with as strong a squad on paper as either of those which won for him in the past two years.

Doubtless, Zuppke's team will encounter a fighting mad Iowa outfit for the Hawkeyes still are angry about that 7-6 decision which they lost to Ohio last Saturday.

Iowa has a good team and Zuppke's initial conference effort this year probably will attract almost as much interest as the Notre Dame-Wisconsin affair.

The latter game will be played on Soldier's Field here and Rockne's team is rated a heavy favorite. Knute has his eyes on another national championship and he has no intention of allowing a Wisconsin team, which was defeated by Northwestern last week, to beat him out of it.

At that, it looks like this may be a Rockne year. In last Saturday's game those Notre Dame boys looked almost as good as is possible when they slapped down the navy. As far as actual football is concerned this game may not be as interesting as some of the others but the ceremonies, color and crowds, which accompany those games on Soldier's Field usually steal the play for interest.

The game at Evanston between Northwestern and Minnesota is a hard one on which to base predictions. The Minnesotans are rated as championship contenders. Northwestern, a "dark horse" in the early season predictions, looked like a real football

BOB SHAWKEY IS NEW MANAGER OF YANKEE TEAM

STARTS NEXT WEEK TO REBUILD YANKEE MACHINE

COL. JACOB RUPPERT MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF SHAWKEY'S CONTRACT

ARTHUR FLETCHER, PICKED BY HUGGINS AS HIS SUCCESSOR, TURNS DOWN JOB
By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 18.—Bob Shawkey, new manager of the New York Yankees, was hunting moose in the Canadian wilderness today but will return next week to begin a long winter's hunt for ball players to rebuild the team.

Col. Jacob Ruppert made the announcement of Shawkey's selection late yesterday and said Shawkey will be here Tuesday to sign a one-year contract.

Arthur Fletcher, picked by Huggins several years ago as his successor, turned down the job.

Fletcher will remain as coach of the Yankees, and Shawkey will take over the risk of rebuilding one of the wealthiest and most powerful organizations in baseball.

The first step in renovating the 1927 and 1928 world champions was the release of Bob Meusel, veteran left fielder, to Cincinnati. Other changes in the Yankees will be made shortly.

Shawkey's selection came as a shock to those who had followed the situation closely. Two years ago he was given his unconditional release when his arm went back on him. After a disappointing year in the minors with Montreal, he returned the past season as coach of the Yankee pitchers.

Informed that Shawkey would manage the Yanks, John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, said: "Shawkey was a great pitcher, a fine fellow and I wish him success with the Yankees."

team, it was expected, would follow closely the starting lineups against Coo and Vanderbilt.

For the past week the Gophers were thoroughly drilled on pass plays and defense of a passing attack and followers of the team predicted Dr. Spears will resort to an aerial attack if the Wildcats gain an early lead.

MAY RENEW ARMY AND NAVY FOOTBALL CLASSIC

MEETING HELD IN WASHINGTON BETWEEN WEST POINT AND NAVY HEADS

CHANCE THAT ARMY AND NAVY MAY CLASH AT CHICAGO DECEMBER 6
By L. S. CAMERON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 18.—Prospects of a renewal of the annual Army-Navy football classic hinged today upon a meeting to be held in Washington between Maj. Gen. William R. Smith, superintendent at West Point, and Rear Admiral S. S. Robinson of the Naval Academy.

There is a chance that the teams will meet December 6, at Soldier's Field in Chicago. This chance, however, is remote because examinations at the military academy begin on Dec. 2, and continue through Dec. 18. After that the Cadets will leave for the west coast for the Stanford game on Dec. 28.

Army and Navy fell out in an athletic way in December, 1927. Navy at that time wanted Army to agree to observe an eligibility rule in effect at the naval academy. This rule provided that an athlete could play but three years of varsity football, and if he had played one year in college before entering the Academy, he could play but two years for Navy.

Army, having already agreed to a rule proposed by Navy prohibiting first year men from playing on the varsity, failed to agree to the second rule and sports relationships were off.

There was one disquieting note in the lengthy telegram in which General Smith proposed the Washington meeting. That came in the paragraph in which he told Admiral Robinson, in effect, that he was not considering a change in eligibility rulings. Navy's acceptance of the invitation to discuss the matter hinted at a desire for compromise.

A New Door needed in the Back Porch?
The Back Door looks a little neglected, doesn't it? For one thing, the screening has rusted and fallen away in spots. Doesn't keep the flies out. And the delivery boys and the ice man have soiled the woodwork. It does look messy. It isn't much of a job to put in new netting and to paint the main door and the frame of the other. Let's get busy. What do you say?

Blue Blood And Red

CHAPTER XLV.

LIFE had caught him up and was whirling him through some gigantic machinery that nullified the feeble efforts of his mind to guess what it was all about. The discouraging thing was that he could conceive of himself only as a toy, a plaything in the hands of an awful and wanton Fate. Only one central shining focus of truth remained in his breast—his love for Marian Thordike. Nothing, not even Destiny, could change that.

He wanted, with aching earnestness, to go to her—to put his very life into her hands and have her mould him like clay, as she willed and he would be anything she desired—would shape himself into the image of any ideal that was in her mind. Yet, when he had been in her presence, he had faltered and stammered until he must have appeared as either a fool or a scoundrel.

When he went to bed it was as though he sought to hide and shelter himself from a storm that was about to break. A new day would come with new complications. Bernice Veressi, he knew with dread certainty, would return. In this he was correct.

Coming toward the house from the barn he saw her alight from an automobile. While car and driver waited she came to meet him.

An odd thing about his feeling toward her was that she aroused no anger in him. Like himself, she was in the grasp of forces that manipulated her; she was, he conceived, equally helpless with him, the midst of some insoluble jigsaw puzzle of Life. It was possible for him to credit her with sincerity—she actually had no desire to ruin his life.

"Why did you hang up on me when I telephoned you last night?" she asked, with a murmur of unhappiness.

Briefly, he explained the public nature of the party line system.

"What are you going to do?" he asked her.

"Please take me around your farm, Eddie, and show it to me," she replied. "Why are you so cold to me when I come out to see you?"

"We've gone over all that stuff," he tried to explain, reasonably.

"If you have anything new to say to me let's get it over with. What's on your mind, Bernice?" She linked her hand through his arm. "Where shall we go to talk it over? In the house?"

There was nothing to do but take her indoors—where she would not be visible to anyone passing along the road. A faint instinctive hope still actuated him. They sat in the long, old-fashioned living room, and Eddie kept warily on the far side.

"I was awake almost all night trying to figure things out," Bernice said, with a tone of reasonableness.

"I made up my mind, Eddie, what you can do I can do. Maybe this trip down here is the turning point in my life just as in yours. I am going to stay, darling, going to settle in the country, in a little town a few miles from you. There are plenty of opportunities for a girl like me."

Eddie gazed at Bernice Veressi in hopeless amazement.

"You're crazy. You can't settle down in this part of the country," he told her. "You'd be a fish out of water—you'd perish."

"If you can do it, I can do it," Her voice was mixed with determination. "I can start up a little business of some kind—maybe a beauty shop—and make my own living."

Eddie listened to her incredulously. This was only a scheme, a device to stay near and harass him.

"You'd die," he repeated, aimlessly.

"There's nothing for me to go back to New York for," Bernice declared. "Ever since you left I was sick of it anyway. What do I care about the gang I used to run around with? I'll be near you, dear, and I'll be making an honest living so you won't feel disgraced about me. You think I'm foolish, Eddie, but I'm not. I got sense enough to know that you don't want me to be a pest—and I don't want to annoy you, either. After I get settled down, maybe we can see each other once in a while. I'll make myself just as damn respectable as that blond girl that's got your goat."

"I tell you it's no use—," He started to protest before he realized it was useless to batter her with mere words. She smiled at him with a meekness that was the epitome of all stubbornness. But such humility, he foresaw, could not last in a temperament as essentially violent as Bernice's. This was only a passing phase of her obsession—a humility complex. If she was abased, impervious to his coldness, it meant only that her fiery temperament was banking behind barriers that sooner or later must burst.

"Besides, I like the country," she said suddenly. "I need a vacation and it's like getting out of a cage to get away from New York."

A step on the veranda distracted his attention from her and he answered the door. He was amazed to find Tom Freeman.

"I was driving by and I thought I'd stop for a minute," Freeman said, with a slow, abashed grin. "I won't take any of your time. I see by the car in your yard that you have visitors. I just wanted to tell you that my sisters are giving a party at our house Saturday night and I'd be glad to have you come. All that old grudge is out of my system and I hope you feel like I do about it, too, Regan. We might as well be friends as long as we are both going to live in the same neighborhood."

Eddie, acutely conscious of the menacing presence inside of Bernice Veressi, was, nevertheless, warmed by this unexpected gesture of friendliness from the man who had been his foe in love and in battle.

"That's swell of you, Freeman," he said, sincerely. "It's too bad we got off on the wrong foot at the start. Sure, I'll be glad to come if I can."

Freeman lingered a moment longer as though half expecting an invitation to enter the house.

"I'm going to take Marian myself to the party—so you needn't think I have run up the white flag entirely in that direction," he stated, with pleasant frankness.

"It takes more than a fist fight to convince me that you've beaten my time. No use your being a couple of chumps, is there?"

"Sure not," Eddie responded.

"All's fair, they say."

OBSURE PART OF VOLSTEAD LAW CONSIDERED

DECLARES "NO ONE SHALL PURCHASE ANY LIQUOR" FOR BEVERAGE PURPOSES

BILL UP TO MAKE PURCHASER AND BOOTLEGGERS EQUALLY GUILTY

By NATHAN ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 17.—Federal prohibition officials today were feverishly studying a hitherto obscure section of the Volstead law declaring "no one shall purchase any liquor" for beverage purposes.

Their attention was called to the section by Senator Morris Sheppard, democrat, Texas, author of the eighteenth amendment and more recently sponsor of a bill to make the purchaser of liquor equally guilty with the bootlegger.

Sheppard, in asking Attorney General Mitchell today for an opinion as to whether the section could be made the basis for a drive against purchasers of liquor called to Mitchell's attention the recent action of a federal judge in Kentucky who instructed a grand jury to indict purchasers under that section.

Heretofore prosecutions of liquor cases under the Volstead law have been based on section three which makes it unlawful to "manufacture, sell, barter, transport, export, deliver, furnish or possess" any intoxicating liquor but makes no mention of "purchase."

Section six declares "no one shall manufacture, sell, purchase, transport or prescribe any liquor without first obtaining a permit from the commissioner of internal revenue so to do, except that a person may, without a permit, purchase and use liquor for medicinal purposes when prescribed by a physician."

Sheppard's determination to penalize the purchaser of liquor has proved embarrassing to many dries who feel that enforcement of a law against purchasing liquor would "break the back" of the prohibition movement. Some contend it would make it more difficult to obtain evidence on the bootleggers.

Sheppard has answered this by pointing to another section of the Volstead law which declares no person can be prosecuted for testimony in obedience to a subpoena.

The Texas senator insists enforcement of prohibition cannot be effective until the purchaser is punished. The moment buyers are branded as lawbreakers 75 per cent of them will stop, he said today.

"The Tip-Off" Starring Bill Cody is Good Entertainment

A powerful, dynamic story of the underworld that rings of authenticity, "The Tip Off," a Universal Thrill Feature, starring William Cody, which will be shown at the Lyceum Saturday only.

The story is about the determination of two underworld characters to go straight, and was written by Basil Dickey, a writer who unquestionably knows his underworld. It moves with rapidity, in thrilling scenes and tense situations, to the death of a stool pigeon, who, when it came to a showdown, could not turn his pals over to the police, and who died that they might go free.

On Saturday afternoon a game of football will be held in the city between the high school team of Brainerd and the Little Falls high school team.

Mann Brothers are to have some bowling alleys in connection with the pool and billiard parlors in the Walverman block. Work will commence tomorrow morning.

GUARDIAN OF MONEY STEALS AWAY

NEW YORK MAN, PAID $125 A MONTH, MAKES AWAY WITH $63,000

New York, Oct. 18.—(UP)—Raymond Gallagher, who received $125 a month for guarding money from bandits, has driven away in an armored car, allegedly with $63,000 to console him.

Before taking the combined payroll of several companies, police said, he thoughtfully gathered up the torn envelopes and sent them back to his employers, the Brinks Express Company.

Gallagher and two companions were in the armored car late yesterday and halted in front of the Chemical National bank. Floyd Chase and Edward Roche entered the bank after locking the door of the car to protect Gallagher from bandits. When they came out, the car was gone.

A man answering Gallagher's description strolled into a postal telegraph branch later in the afternoon, handed a messenger boy a package and a dollar and told him to deliver the bundle to the Brinks Express Co. Officials there opened the package when the boy arrived and found the envelopes.

The abandoned car was found a short distance from the Chemical bank last night.

The drawing-room tragedy that began in the dining-room

NOT SO many years ago she would only laugh gaily when asked the secret of her alluring complexion, sparkling eyes, radiant manner. She hadn't the slightest idea. But now, so unhappy over her wan, haggard face—her dull eyes and constant fatigue, she was as much at a loss to know why her beauty had gone. It couldn't be her diet... she was so careful about what she ate.

Unfortunately, her diet was to blame. For in her menus she had neglected to include dishes with that all-important element—roughage. The result was constipation which was poisoning her system—stealing her beauty.

What a pity so many women and men do not realize the value of roughage! And more—do not know that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a delicious cereal—can supply roughage and bring sure relief from constipation!

Why ALL-BRAN is so effective

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes bulk in most generous quantity. This bulk absorbs moisture and distributes it through the digestive system. Gently exercising the intestines—sweeping out poisons. In a part-bran product there is seldom sufficient bulk to completely perform this work. That is why doctors recommend ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN works as nature works. How much better than habit-forming drugs whose dose must be increased—which may injure the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is an inviting cereal to eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking—recipes on package. Mix it with other cereals. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Serve it in some form regularly and you will protect your family from dread constipation.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, cafeterias. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Guaranteed! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

JOHN PALM DIES FROM SMASHUP INJURIES

Fourth Victim Taken in Wave of Deaths on Highways and Streets Within Week

INQUEST CONTINUED

Bodies of Mike Vranas and Palm Taken to Cuyuna; Inquest Continued Next Wednesday

The grim reaper that stalked streets and highways in and near Brainerd in the past week took as its fourth victim John Palm, 24, Cuyuna, who died last evening at 9:30 o'clock at the St. Joseph's hospital.

The man had failed to recover consciousness following the smashup Wednesday night on highway No. 27 a few miles south of Crow Wing when his friend, Mike Vranas, 22, also of Cuyuna, was instantly killed.

Coroner D. E. Whitney who called an inquest yesterday afternoon to investigate the circumstances of the accident continued the hearing until next Wednesday to permit further investigation.

The bodies of Vranas and Palm have been taken to Cuyuna for burial. Three others, occupants of the other car which struck the rear end of the car driven by Vranas as he attempted to reach the right hand side of the road after crossing the division line in the pavement it is reported, escaped serious injury.

Joe Stein, the driver, suffered a fractured arm while Donald and Manfred Norquist, brothers, all of Brainerd received cuts in the face and bruises about the body.

The accident happened as Stein was returning to Brainerd and Vranas was travelling south on the highway. The Vranas car was forced sideways rolling over three times, Vranas and Palm being pinned in the car. The heads of both victims were crushed.

ATTENDED REGION 10 SCOUT MEET

Scout Field Executive S. C. Bakken Also Attended Scout Executive Seminar

BOTH HELD IN MINNEAPOLIS

One of Outstanding Addresses Was Delivered by Ray O. Wyland

Scout Field Executive S. C. Bakken returned last evening from Minneapolis where he attended Region Ten Scouters convention and the Scout Executive seminar which followed the convention.

The convention was held at the Curtis hotel October 11 and 12 and the seminar was held October 13, 14, 15 and 16 at the Citizens Aid building in Minneapolis.

The conference opened with a luncheon, at which time the council presidents from each of the 21 councils in region 10 gave a short talk on the progress of their council. President Olds of the central Minnesota area gave a good talk, touching upon the spirit of area cooperation among the districts of the area.

Following this, the assemblage was divided in six groups where the opportunity was given for those interested to attend which they chose. They were as follows:

The local council office as a year round service station.

The fundamentals of the area council administration.

The older boys and the Scout Masters opportunities.

Reading program.

The scout executive and what to expect of him.

Forward looking area council program.

Each of these sections was presided over by a national council representative.

Region Ten was fortunate in having with them at the conference and seminar six outstanding national executives: George W. Ehler, director of troop service; Charles N. Miller, assistant director of the field department; Ernest A. Stowell, director of personnel;

Thomas J. Keene, director of sea scouting; Leo M. Sendufur, director of field promotion of boy's life and Ray O. Wyland, director of the department of education.

One of the outstanding addresses of the conference was delivered by Ray O. Wyland on Friday evening in which he stressed four points in particular:

He stated scouting was making a real contribution to the religious life of a boy, particularly inasmuch as scout troops are tied up to the churches as parental institutions. He stated the religious life of a boy was greatly strengthened by the guiding influence of men of character who serve as scoutmasters and committee men and by the outstanding training in reverence and tolerance which comes as part of the scout training for boys.

He pointed out that scouting is a leisure time activity for the boys. It brings scouting education to the boy during the time when the school has no control over them.

Scouting in the future would be judged on points of ability, he said, in training the boys to become better citizens and building in them a finer and more noble character.

He also stated scouting was contributing to one of the fundamental institutions of our human life—the home. An organization which did not contribute to the betterment and growth of the home life, he pointed out, could not deserve the support of the American public.

D. C. Gray, of the city, was in attendance at all the sessions.

Arrangements were made by the Elks lodge, which met last evening, to have a smoker at the hours mentioned, to be held in the club rooms.

The Grand Exalted Ruler will arrive in Minneapolis on October 20 at 5:30 P. M. and will stay there that night. The next morning he will motor over to Rochester for lunch after which he will visit the Mayo clinic and then motor back to Minneapolis for the evening meeting, leaving there that night at 11:20 o'clock for Duluth where he will arrive at 6:30 o'clock in the morning of October 22. After breakfast he will motor through the range country, getting back to Duluth for an evening meeting, leaving there at 11:30 o'clock and going back to the cities, and leaving there the next morning for Grand Forks.

Clyde Moors, 514 Quince, will receive a ticket to the Lyceum Theatre if he will call at the ticket office for the same.

KITTY GORDON'S PLACE PADLOCKED

U. S. Deputy Marshal Pearce Executes Padlock Order at Gull Lake Cottage Home

CASE PENDING IN COURT

Sale and Possession of Beer Charged Against Woman Who Once Claimed Stage Fame

Kitty Gordon's cottage home on Gull Lake was today padlocked for one year by U. S. Deputy Marshal James Pearce of Duluth on order of the federal court.

Kitty Gordon who claims to be the original Kitty Gordon of stage fame faces a charge of sale and possession of beer. Her case is pending in U. S. Federal Court at Duluth, having been transferred from district court here last spring.

The padlock order was made on the grounds that beer was seized in the home on a raid there by federal agents last May.

Her son, Donald Madden, also faces a charge of sale of beer.

HONOR EDISON ON OCTOBER 21

A Replica of the First "Carbon Lamp" to be Shown Here

Mr. Owen, manager of Montgomery Ward & Co.'s store, announced today that his store will take an active part in commemorating the invention of the first successful incandescent electric lamp by Edison, October 21, 1879.

Extensive plans have been prepared for an unusually interesting historical electrical window. An actual replica of the first "carbon lamp" will be shown in comparison with the newest means of illumination—the 100-watt lamp. The windows will also display in actual photographs Thomas A. Edison's own experimental laboratory at Menlo Park, N. J., in which the lamp was perfected, and many other interesting photographs.

$500 VOTED TO STOP CATTLE RUSTLING

Superior, Wis., Oct. 18.—(UP)—Memories of a fairly wild west "littering" days were recalled here today when the Douglas county board of supervisors voted a $500 appropriation for a campaign against cattle rustling. County Sheriff M. J. McGuire posted a reward of $100 and announced special deputies would be placed in every community to halt the almost nightly thefts for livestock.

A Buying Power of $200,000,000

Is the Secret of Our Low Prices

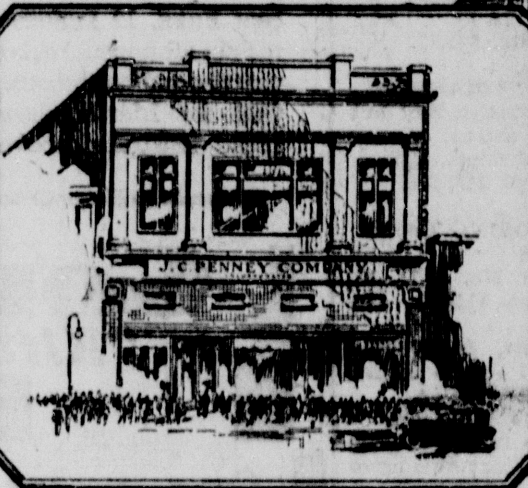

Many of our customers say to us, "how can you sell such good merchandise so cheaply?" Our $200,000,000 Buying Power is the answer.

Step into our store and you'll see in a minute that placing orders by the million pairs, and in carload lots, makes a great difference in the cost of things.

We never have to ask a manufacturer to skimp on quality to make a "bargain price." The tremendous orders we place—sometimes the whole output of his factory—enable us to demand the very lowest price.

Giving you better things for less money isn't just a slogan in our store. We've been doing it for over a quarter of a century.

Men's Suits

Made in the J. C. Penney Manner

That means correctly styled in every detail . . . lines and proportions in perfect harmony . . . expertly tailored, ensuring permanency of shape, stability against strain and exactness of fit . . . quality fabrics, loomed, woven and patterned to our exacting specifications. And these standards of style, quality and workmanship we can, and do, enforce in every garment through the compelling, buying prestige of our 1400 Stores. It is not to be wondered that a J. C. Penney label in your suit is an assurance of the fullest measure of clothing value to be had.

See Our Display of Fall Styles for Men

This sprucely conservative, three-button suit with notch lapel jacket, has been designed and executed with a mind to the style preferences of the man who wants to be well-dressed without being conspicuous.

Finely tailored of worsteds and unfinished worsteds in fancy stripe effects . . . in medium and dark shades of tan, grey and brown.

In the ever-appropriate Blues, too, including blue serge and blue-and-white pin stripes.

GRAVEL ROADS IN GOOD SHAPE

Favorable weather has made it possible for the State Highway maintenance organization to put most of the gravel roads in good condition this week, and nearly all of the routes are shown as "good" in the weekly road condition report issued by the department today. The exceptions are short stretches where work is in progress.

The new grade on T. H. No. 23 has been graded and opened to traffic from Milaca to Bock. Construction is still in progress between Bock and Ogilvie but traffic goes over the old road.
